Governor, First Lady of the State visits Danyi Pillo Meder Nello, Kalung

Governor calls upon the people to preserve and promote their age-old traditions and cultural heritage

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) accompanied by the First Lady of the State Smt Anagha Parnaik visited an indigenous faith prayer centre, Danyi Pillo Meder Nello, Kalung in Ziro on 10th May 2023. The Governor and the First Lady of the State paid obeisance at the Meder Nello.

The Governor said that all religions teach good things of life and guide all to do good for the society and nation. He urged the people to repose faith in their belief.

The Governor called upon the people to preserve and promote their age-old traditions and cultural heritage. He asked them to encompass the youth in their endeavour so that the future generations are connected to their roots.

Local MLA and State Minister for Agriculture etc. Er. Tage Taki, DC Ziro Shri Bamin Nime and SP Dr. Sachin Singhal were present on the occasion.

Later the Governor and the First Lady of the State participated in a plantation programme, organized to commemorate their visit to the Meder Nello.
