Governor extends National Press Day greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to the nationalistic and committed people associated with press media in our nation on the special occasion of the National Press Day. He expressed hope that the celebration of this Day will enhance multifaceted approaches by the media fraternity in maintaining the time-honoured media ethics, principles and values.

The Governor said that the Press Media, with its transparency and accountability is truly the Fourth Pillar of democracy. It is Informative, educative, perspective disseminator and platform for expression. Today, the media in our country is actively playing a positive role, involving public affairs encompassing all aspects of human behaviour, be it legislative, administrative, judicial, social, law and order. It is gratifying to see that the media has been successful in giving itself a much needed progressive turn, in pace with the changing times of globalization. I am confident that Press Media will continue to progress to achieve the top niche in journalism by orienting themselves to face the challenges to national unity, integrity, women and girl child, he said.

The Governor, while conveying his warm greetings to all the esteemed members of the Press Council of India and media fraternity of the State on the momentous occasion, also extended his best wishes for the successful celebration of the National Press Day.
