Governor appeals to the people of Arunachal Pradesh to generously contribute towards the cause of the families of the martyrs, disabled comrade-in-arms and the Vir Naris

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to the members of the gallant Indian Armed Forces on the special occasion of the Armed Forces Flag Day. He expressed his hope that the day will further reinforce the goodwill of the people of our country towards our brave armed forces personnel.

In his message, the Governor said that in the honour of the men in uniform who valiantly fought for the defence of the Nation and made the supreme sacrifice, starting in the year 1949, 7th December is being observed as the Armed Forces Flag Day throughout the country. This Day also calls for offering our gratitude to the brave and gallant heroes from the Armed forces, who fighting the enemies of the Nation, put their life at risk for our sake. It provides us an opportunity to discharge our obligation of looking after the families of the martyrs, disabled comrade-in-arms and the Vir Naris, he said while appealing to the people of Arunachal Pradesh to generously contribute towards their cause.

On this day, let us remember, recall and express our gratitude to the retired and serving Armed Forces personnel of our Army, Navy and Air Force for their unmatched valour and sacrifice. I call upon the young generation to take inspiration from the prowess and patriotism of our martyrs, the Governor said in his message.
