

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

Press Communiqué

Governor participates in Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra programme at Changlang

The Governor administers the Viksit Bharat Sankalp pledge to the people to make India a developed and self-reliant Nation by 2047, remove any trace of colonial mindset, celebrate our heritage, strengthen unity, respect those who protect the country and perform the duties of a citizen.

Ensure that the villagers of the district staying in remote areas avail benefits from the Central Government programmes and schemes: Governor to District HoDs

Governor emphasizes upon the district heads of the department to go out of their offices, reach out to the people, particularly the beneficiaries and personally monitor the progress of projects on the ground

Automation of the offices and data will enormously help in analyzing ground reality over the week, month and year; enable better focus, planning and outreach of the programmes and in achieving the target: Governor to HoDs

Governor commends the efforts being made by the Self Help Groups and NGOs to rehabilitate persons addicted by drug abuse.

Reformed youth need to be made 'Anti Drug Ambassador' at the State level and should help others to reform: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) participated in the Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra programme at Changlang on 8th December 2023. He appealed to the people to avail maximum benefits from the State and Central Governments schemes and programmes. He also administered the Viksit Bharat Sankalp pledge to the people on the occasion, who including elected representatives, Panchayat members, Gaon Burahs and government officials to make India developed and self-reliant Nation by 2047, remove any trace of colonial mindset, celebrate our heritage, strengthen unity, respect those who protect the country and perform the duties of a citizen.

The Governor reiterated that in the spirit of 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas aur Sabka Prayas', Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Shri Narendra Modi has launched the Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra with special focus on tribal communities. He advised the people of Changlang District to ensure that the villagers of the district staying in remote areas, avail benefits from the Central Government programmes and schemes. He stressed that they must reach out to those eligible beneficiaries, who are yet to avail benefits to get them registered.

In his maiden visit to Changlang District, the Governor reviewed developmental progress of Central and State Government programmes being implemented in the district. He emphasized upon the district heads of the department to go out of their offices, reach out to the people, particularly the beneficiaries and personally monitor the progress of projects on the ground.

The Governor advised the officials to automate their offices and data. He said that it is just a three month long exercise but will enormously help them in analyzing ground reality over the week, month and year; enable better focus, planning and outreach of the programmes and in achieving the target.

The Governor expressed his concerns about school dropout rate, drug addiction and execution of women and girl child related welfare schemes. He said that, when the Hon'ble Prime Minister is so concerned about welfare issues, our officials and government machinery must put in concerted effort to implement the socio-economic programmes on ground.

The Governor was delighted to see the efforts being made by the Self Help Groups, NGOs to rehabilitate persons addicted by drug abuse. One such person narrated his efforts to be reformed. Such reformed youth need to be made 'Anti Drug Ambassador' at the State level and should help others to reform, the Governor opined.

Deputy Speaker, Shri Tesam Pongte, MLA Shri Phosum Khimhun, Director General of Police Shri Anand Mohan, Deputy Commissioner in-charge Shri S. Mining and Superintendent of Police Shri Kirli Padu were present amongst others.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, December 09, 2023