Governor extends Good Governance Day greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to the people of the State on the special occasion of Good Governance Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of former Prime Minister, Bharat Ratna Late Atal Bihari Vajpayee. He expressed his hope that the celebration of the Day will foster more awareness, among the people, about the public accountability of the government and promote honesty, integrity, accountability and responsibility in every person in authority for people friendly governance.

In his message, the Governor said that Good Governance encompasses inclusive growth and development for the welfare and betterment of the life of the people in the country. The processes and functioning of the government machinery, therefore, have to be made fully transparent and responsive. Involving the citizens in the developmental process through social audit and making them active participants in the governance will strengthen good governance.

The Governor further said that Late Atal Bihari Vajpayee was an illustrious statesman, extraordinary orator, and distinguished writer. He maintained that the empowerment of the people is best served through rapid economic growth and rapid social progress. As a tribute to the great son of Bharat Mata, I appeal to the people of Arunachal Pradesh to accept, adopt, and apply the tenets of Good Governance, in letter and spirit, in service of the Nation, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
