

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

Press Communiqué

Proactive role of the Industry Ministry will reinforce 'Atmanirbhartha' amongst the Arunachali women in true sense: Governor

Governor stresses on promotion of traditional textiles of Arunachal Pradesh by fostering the growth of micro and small enterprises in the State

Union MoS for Textiles and Railways calls on the Governor

Governor emphasizes on strengthening the industry ecosystem in the State

Governor calls for better services for the railway passengers

Governor calls for commencing 'Goods train/bogies services' to facilitate transportation of goods and arts and crafts items to different parts of the country

Union Minister of State for Textiles and Railways, Smt. Darshana Vikram Jardosh called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 26th December 2023. They discussed promotion of textiles and improvement in railway service.

The Governor emphasized on strengthening the industry ecosystem in the State, which has a vibrant textile segment. He said that large numbers of womenfolk of Arunachal Pradesh are involved in the textile sector and such a proactive role of the Ministry will reinforce 'Atmanirbhartha' amongst the Arunachali women in true sense.

The Governor stressed on promotion of traditional textiles of Arunachal Pradesh by fostering the growth of micro and small enterprises in the State. He said it will be the growth engine for employment opportunities with special focus on women empowerment.

The Governor also called for better services for the railway passengers, in view of large numbers of people availing the train services, especially the tourists. He further requested for commencing 'Goods train/bogies services' to facilitate transportation of goods and arts and crafts items to different parts of the country.

The Union Minister of State briefed the Governor on the proposed Railway projects as well as initiatives being taken by the Textile Ministry to promote textiles industry, through training and marketing.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, December 26, 2023