

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

Press Communiqué

Chief Postmaster General calls on the Governor

Governor suggests the Chief Postmaster General to help the State to get Arunachal Pradesh and its rich diversity of tribes and flora and fauna on Indian stamps to spread awareness within and outside the country

Governor emphasizes on opening more branches in administrative circles for the welfare of the common people

The Chief Postmaster General, North East Postal Circle, Shillong Smt. Mariamma Thomas called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 12th March 2024. They discussed strengthening the postal service in Arunachal Pradesh.

The Governor emphasized on opening more branches in administrative circles for the welfare of the common people. He also suggested enhancing the manpower in the postal service in the State.

The Governor suggested to the Chief Postmaster General to help the State to get Arunachal Pradesh and its rich diversity of tribes and flora and fauna on Indian stamps to spread awareness within and outside the country.

The Chief Postmaster General assured the Governor to improve the postal service in the State. She also briefed about the schemes and programmes carried out by the Indian Postal Service.

In the meeting, the Chief Postmaster General presented a Souvenir box containing a memento featuring six commemorative stamps of Sri Ram Janmbhoomi Temple, which was released by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Shri Narendra Modi on 18th January 2024. These stamps have been printed with the water and sand from Ram Janmbhoomi, carrying the consciousness and blessings of Shri Ram. The stamps have the fragrance of sandalwood signifying the fragrance of divinity. To make these stamps radiant of the divine light, parts of the Miniature sheet is gold plated.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, March 12, 2024