Governor extends Ali-Aye-Ligang greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) has extended his greetings to the people of the State and Mising community of Assam on the joyous occasion of Ali-Aye-Ligang. He expressed hope that the festivity usher in tranquillity, contentment and happiness in the society.

In his message, the Governor said that Ali-Aye-Ligang, rooted in the agrarian traditions of the Mising tribe, is a celebration of new beginnings, prosperity, and the deep bond between nature and humankind. This vibrant festival marks the commencement of the sowing season, symbolizing hope, hard work, and gratitude towards Mother Earth. The festival's spirited dances and traditional feasts reflect the rich cultural heritage of the Mising people. It is a time of joy, unity, and the reaffirmation of our age-old traditions, he said.

May this festival bring abundant harvests, happiness, and prosperity to all, the Governor wished in his message.
