Governor visit Jamnagar Military Station

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), who is on a five-day official visit to the State of Gujarat, visited the Military Station, Jamnagar on 8th April 2025. He interacted with the senior officials of the Indian Army.

During the visit, the Governor fondly recalled his own posting in Jamnagar as a young Lieutenant in 1972, shortly after returning from action deep inside Pakistani territory during the Indo-Pakistani War of 1971. Reflecting on those formative experiences, he shared the challenging circumstances under which the troops operated and expressed deep admiration for the spirit and resilience of the Indian Armed Forces.

The Governor commended the senior leadership for upholding the proud traditions and high standards of the Indian military.

Sharing extensive experience of his military career, the Governor, who held several key positions, including commanding the Northern Command from January 1, 2011, to June 30, 2013, emphasized courage and selfless sacrifice amongst the troops, and an 'Esprit-de-Corps' amongst the tri-services.

Military Station Jamnagar is one of the most strategically significant defence establishments in the region, hosting key installations of all three armed services. Its location and operational readiness play a vital role in India's defence preparedness, especially along the western front.
