Governor reviews security scenario

Governor underlines the strategic, security, and socio-economic importance of border fencing in Arunachal Pradesh, given its sensitive geopolitical location

Inner Line Permit system is vital for the legal and administrative safeguard of the State: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) reviewed the security scenario of the State at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 2nd May 2025. During the meeting, State Home Minister Shri Mama Natung, Additional Director General of Police Shri Vivek Kishore, and Inspector General of Police (Law & Order) Shri Chukhu Apa briefed the Governor on key issues including the progress of border fencing along the Indo-Myanmar border, the Inner Line Permit (ILP) regime, and other critical internal security matters.

The Governor underlined the strategic, security, and socio-economic importance of border fencing in Arunachal Pradesh, given its sensitive geopolitical location. He emphasized that robust fencing infrastructure, coupled with designated crossing points would play a vital role in preventing illegal infiltration, arms smuggling, drug trafficking, and insurgent movement.

While emphasizing on facilitating the fencing project, the Governor that fencing would serve as a visible demarcation of Indian Territory and foster a more secure and stable environment, thereby promoting socio-economic development in border areas.

Calling to strengthen the Inner Line Permit system, the Governor described it as a vital legal and administrative safeguard for the State. He said that the ILP is essential for regulating the entry of non-residents, thereby preserving the demographic balance and protecting the rights and cultural identity of indigenous communities. He further emphasized that the ILP mechanism enhances law and order by enabling better tracking and monitoring of visitors.

The Governor also discussed the State's surrender policy and reviewed the overall internal security situation in consultation with the Home Minister and senior police officials. He expressed appreciation for the efforts of the state police and encouraged continued vigilance and proactive measures to ensure peace and development in Arunachal Pradesh.
