Governor calls on the President of India

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), called on the President of India, Smt. Droupadi Murmu, at Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi on 18th July 2025. Accompanied by the First Lady of the State, Smt. Anagha Parnaik, the Governor, presented the President with a copy of Orchids of Arunachal Pradesh, a meticulously compiled, unique, visually rich, and comprehensive reference book, which showcases the extraordinary diversity of orchid species found in Arunachal Pradesh, many of which are rare, endemic, and of global botanical significance.

During the meeting, the Governor apprised the Hon'ble President of the ongoing developmental progress in Arunachal Pradesh and the State Government's unwavering commitment to contributing meaningfully to the national vision of 'Viksit Bharat' through its localized roadmap of 'Viksit Arunachal'. He highlighted key initiatives and transformative efforts being undertaken across various sectors to uplift the lives of the people and ensure inclusive growth in the Frontier State.

The Governor also briefed the President on the follow-up actions and compliance related to the key points discussed during the last Governors' Conference, reaffirming the State's dedication to national priorities and cooperative federalism. He underlined the importance of these efforts in building a more resilient and equitable society in the State's remote and diverse regions.

The Governor highlighted the Raj Bhavan's proactive role in advancing public health, particularly in the fight against tuberculosis, promoting women's empowerment, youth development, and supporting improvements in health and education.

PRO to Governor
