Governor pays tribute to Kargil war martyrs

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), on behalf of the people of the State and on his own behalf, paid tributes to the brave sons of India who laid down their lives during the Kargil War on the historic occasion of Kargil Vijay Diwas. He expressed his hope that the special occasion will continue to inspire patriotism, nationalism, and the spirit of sacrifice for the defence of the Nation, amongst our countrymen, always and every time.

In his message, the Governor said that Kargil Vijay Diwas is more than a commemoration of victory. It is a powerful reminder of the extraordinary courage, selfless sacrifice, and unwavering patriotism of our armed forces. Against impossible odds and in unforgiving terrain, our soldiers stood tall to defend our motherland, embodying the very spirit of India. This day encourages each of us to rise above differences and commit ourselves to the ideals of unity, resilience, and national pride. As we remember our fallen heroes with gratitude and reverence, their legacy continues to awaken the spirit of service and sacrifice in every Indian, he said.

I join my fellow citizens of Arunachal Pradesh in paying our tribute to the martyrs of the Kargil War. May the valour of Kargil continue to guide and enthuse generations to come, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
