Governor extends Raksha Bandhan greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) has extended his heartfelt greetings and warm wishes to the people of the State on the joyous occasion of Raksha Bandhan. He expressed his hope that the festival, rooted in the sacred bond between siblings, will continue to reinforce love, care, and a lifelong commitment to each other's well-being.

In his message, the Governor said that Raksha Bandhan, meaning the 'bond of protection', reminds us of the duty to safeguard and support one another, within families and across society. It symbolizes mutual trust, emotional closeness, and respect, and in a broader sense, calls upon men to uphold the dignity and safety of women with sincerity and brotherly affection, he said.

The Governor stated that, beyond familial ties, Raksha Bandhan embodies the spirit of unity and harmony. It strengthens the social fabric by promoting empathy, cooperation, and peaceful coexistence among all communities. Let us use this opportunity to reaffirm our commitment to upholding these values and fostering a compassionate and inclusive society, he said.

May this Raksha Bandhan bring joy to every home and reinforce the bonds of love, unity, and shared purpose in our collective journey toward peace and progress, the Governor wished in his message.
