Miss Kabak Yana has summited Mount Elbrus

Governor congratulates Ms Kabak Yano

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has congratulated Miss Kabak Yano for her remarkable achievement of summing Mount Elbrus, the highest peak in Russia and Europe. She successfully reached the summit on 16th August 2025 at 5:20 AM (Russian time).

The Governor, who had earlier flagged off Miss Yano for her Seven Summits Challenge, expressed pride in her determination and confidence that she will complete the mission successfully. He said that her extraordinary feat reflects the true 'Spirit of Arunachal' and will serve as a powerful source of inspiration, particularly for young girls, to embrace challenges with courage and resilience.

Mount Elbrus, located in the Caucasus Mountains of southwestern Russia near the Georgian border, is a dormant stratovolcano standing 18,510 feet above sea level. It is the highest peak in Europe and also the highest volcano in Eurasia and ranks among the ten most prominent peaks in the world. Climbing Elbrus is considered one of the significant milestones of the Seven Summits Challenge, which involves scaling the tallest mountain on each continent.
