Governor extends Indigenous Faith Day greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has extended his heartiest greetings to the people of the State on the special occasion of Indigenous Faith Day. He expressed his hope that the celebration of the day will inspire all to carry forward our indigenous faith system, as the people have done since time immemorial.

In his message, the Governor said that Arunachal Pradesh is home to many indigenous tribes. Each one of them has a unique culture and lifestyle. Every tribe has its own beliefs and practices, which have happily been conserved and passed on from generation to generation for centuries. This Day, which is being observed in respect of indigenous faiths, cultures, and customs in the State, reflects the unique cultural heritage of the indigenous people. It also reinforces our distinctive culture, which has always been for peace and harmony amongst the tribal communities and with nature. To strengthen this spirit, the belief of indigenous peoples must be respected, and their extraordinary culture and traditions must be maintained, he said.

On this joyous occasion, I offer my prayers to the Almighty to invoke thy blessings for each one of us, the Governor said in his message.
