Governor appeals to the people to cast their vote

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has earnestly appealed to every voter in the State to participate wholeheartedly in the upcoming Panchayat and Municipal elections and cast their vote on 15th December 2025.

The Governor said that Panchayati Raj Institutions, working at the grassroots level, are essential for meaningful public participation in development planning and implementation. He further said that municipal councils, urban bodies directly elected by the people, have immense responsibility and authority to promote development, and he urged them to fully utilize their powers to better serve their communities.

Reflecting on India's democratic legacy, the Governor reminded citizens that the country stands as the world's largest democracy, founded on universal suffrage and adult franchise. Every vote, he emphasized, carries great significance and must be exercised with sincerity, not only as a constitutional right but as a moral and national duty.

The Governor also called upon all officers on election duty to uphold the highest standards of devotion, impartiality, transparency, and accountability to ensure free, fair, and peaceful elections across the State.
