Governor apprises the Vice President of the security dynamics of the North East States in general and Arunachal Pradesh in particular

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), called on the Vice President of India, Shri Chandrapuram Ponnusami Radhakrishnan, at New Delhi on 31st December 2025. The Governor conveyed the good wishes of the people of Arunachal Pradesh to the Vice President.

During the interaction, the Governor shared an overview of the State's steady and inclusive development, while highlighting the Government of Arunachal Pradesh's unwavering commitment to contributing meaningfully to the national vision of Viksit Bharat. He said that this effort is guided by the State's localized and people-centric roadmap of Viksit Arunachal. The focus on balanced growth, improved connectivity, human development, and equal opportunities for all sections of society, he said.

The Governor apprised the Vice President about the progress being made in the fields of education, health, and social welfare of the people of Arunachal. He also briefly apprised the Vice President of the security dynamics of the North East States in general and Arunachal Pradesh in particular.

The Governor also shared with pride about the vibrant spirit of the youth of Arunachal Pradesh, noting their growing engagement in entrepreneurship, their deep-rooted respect for art and culture, and their strong sense of nationalism. He said that the energy, creativity, and discipline of the younger generation are emerging as key drivers of the State's transformation and future leadership.

The Governor presented the Vice President with a copy of 'Orchids of Arunachal Pradesh', a meticulously compiled, visually rich, and comprehensive reference work. The book showcases the extraordinary diversity of orchid species found in the State, many of which are rare, endemic, and of global botanical significance, symbolizing Arunachal Pradesh's rich natural heritage and its commitment to conservation and ecological stewardship.

The Governor extended an invite to the Vice President to visit Arunachal Pradesh, which he gracefully accepted to do so.

PRO to Governor
