Governor extends Magh Bihu greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. General K.T. Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has extended his warm greetings to the people of the State on the joyous occasion of Magh Bihu. He also conveyed his good wishes to the Assamese community in the State and to the people of Assam, the age-old friendly neighbouring State, where Magh Bihu is cherished as one of the most important cultural festivals.

In his message, the Governor said that Magh Bihu is deeply rooted in our agrarian traditions. It marks the joyful culmination of the harvest season and reflects the spirit of gratitude, sharing, and community living. The festival brings people together through traditional rituals and community feasts, as an expression of thanksgiving to the Almighty for a bountiful harvest and the promise of prosperity ahead. I join all those celebrating Magh Bihu and pray for a year filled with abundance, harmony, and progress for the entire region, he said.

May the spirit of Magh Bihu usher in happiness, goodwill, and mutual understanding among all, the Governor said in his message.
