Governor extends Holi greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has extended his warm greetings to the people of the State on the festive occasion of Holi. He expressed hope that the vibrant festival would spread harmony, goodwill, and togetherness throughout our society.

In his message, the Governor said that Bharat, a land of profound cultural diversity, celebrates Holi in myriad ways across its regions, yet the essence of the festival remains universal. Holi symbolizes the victory of good over evil and serves as a gentle reminder of the higher values that guide and protect us in our everyday lives. It also heralds the arrival of spring, a season of renewal, joy, and hope, he said.

The Governor said that Holi, celebrated with exuberance and a vibrant play of colours, is aptly known as the Festival of Colours. At its core, the festival represents a fresh beginning, opening a new chapter filled with optimism, tolerance, and wisdom, he said.

May this year's celebration strengthen our social bonds, inspire mutual understanding, and usher in renewed hope for a brighter and more inclusive future for all, the Governor wished in his message.
