Governor interacts with troops at Hq 46 Infantry Brigade

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), visited the Headquarters of the 46 Infantry Brigade at Baishaki in West Kameng district on 8th April 2026, and interacted with the officers and troops. Drawing from his rich military experience, he shared insights from his own journey and reviewed the soldiers' wellbeing, morale, and operational readiness.

Addressing the officers and personnel of the 46 Infantry Brigade (Sela Warriors), the Governor encouraged them to stay physically fit, mentally strong, and always prepared to meet emerging challenges. He urged them to carry out their duties with dedication and integrity, while upholding the proud traditions of their regiments and the enduring spirit of the Indian Army.

The Governor also interacted with the troops of the Rajputana Rifles Regiment, with whom he shares a special connection as a former officer of the regiment on the occasion.

Appreciating the efforts of the 46 Infantry Brigade under the aegis of 4 Corps, the Governor lauded their professionalism, discipline, and steadfast commitment to safeguarding the nation's borders.
