

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

Press Communiqué

Governor lays a wreath at the Jaswant Garh War Memorial

Jaswant Garh War Memorial is a sacred symbol of courage, sacrifice, and unwavering patriotism: Governor

Jaswant Garh War Memorial stands as an enduring reminder of the indomitable spirit of the soldiers who laid down their lives in defence of the nation's sovereignty: Governor

Governor interacts with tourists at Jaswant Garh War Memorial

Visits to War Memorials go beyond sightseeing, serving as meaningful opportunities to connect with the nation's history and honour its heroes: Governor to tourists

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), laid a wreath at the Jaswant Garh War Memorial on 8th April 2026, paying tribute to the valiant hero of the 1962 War, Rifleman Jaswant Singh Rawat, Maha Vir Chakra (Posthumously), and to all the brave martyrs of the Sino-Indian War.

Reflecting on the solemn occasion, the Governor described the memorial as a sacred symbol of courage, sacrifice, and unwavering patriotism. He said it stands as an enduring reminder of the indomitable spirit of the soldiers who laid down their lives in defence of the nation's sovereignty. He expressed confidence that the memorial will continue to inspire generations to serve the Motherland with dedication, honour, and selflessness.

The Governor commended all ranks of 4 Corps, especially the 5 Mountain Division, for maintaining the memorial with utmost professionalism, dignity, and devotion. He also lauded the officers and Jawans of the 46 Infantry Brigade for their vigilance, discipline, and exemplary commitment to duty.

Earlier, officials of the 24 Jat Regiment briefed the Governor on the upkeep of the memorial and the various initiatives undertaken to preserve its legacy and further strengthen its role as a source of inspiration for the nation.

The Governor also met with Ex-Servicemen at the Jaswant Garh War Memorial. Acknowledging their invaluable service to the nation, he encouraged them to maintain good health and continue contributing to society. He reminded them that as proud members of the Indian Army family, their experience, wisdom, and values remain a guiding force for future generations.

The Governor interacted with a large number of tourists at the War Memorial, encouraging them to reflect on the courage and sacrifice of the soldiers. He emphasized that such visits go beyond sightseeing, serving as meaningful opportunities to connect with the nation's history and honour its heroes.

Expressing happiness at the growing number of visitors, especially youth, the Governor described the memorial as a living source of inspiration, instilling patriotism, discipline, and pride, and urged all to carry forward the legacy of the martyrs. He also graciously obliged the delighted tourists who eagerly requested photographs, many of whom were pleasantly surprised to find the Head of the State among them.