NHRC Special Monitor calls on the Governor

Special Monitor, National Human Rights Commission, Shri Balkrishan Goel, called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar, on 24 April 2026. They discussed shared commitment towards promoting human dignity, protecting rights and ensuring inclusive social well-being.

The Governor shared the prevailing human rights scenario in the State, highlighting Arunachal Pradesh's strong tribal ethos, community-based traditions and harmonious social fabric, which have long upheld dignity, mutual respect and social responsibility. He also spoke about the initiatives of the State Government, along with the valuable contributions of benevolent non-governmental organizations, in advancing the welfare and protection of children and elderly citizens.

Emphasizing the need for sustained outreach, the Governor suggested regular awareness campaigns across the State to further strengthen safeguards sensitize communities and reinforce welfare mechanisms for vulnerable sections of society.

NHRC Special Monitor for Child Rights and Elderly Citizens, briefed the Governor on areas requiring greater attention and focused intervention, particularly in reinforcing protection frameworks and improving support systems for those in need.
