

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

Press Communiqué

Governor congratulates General Dhiraj Seth on assuming charge as Chief of the Army Staff

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has extended his congratulations and best wishes to General Dhiraj Seth, PVSM, UYSM, AVSM, on assuming charge as the 31st Chief of the Army Staff (COAS) of the Indian Army on 30 June 2026. The Governor extended his best wishes to General Seth for a successful tenure.

Conveying greetings on behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, the Governor expressed confidence that under General Seth's able leadership, the Indian Army will continue to uphold its glorious traditions of professionalism, valour, and unwavering commitment to the nation. He expressed hope that the Indian Army will continue to strengthen its capabilities to meet future challenges with determination and excellence in the rapidly evolving security environment and the emergence of new dimensions of warfare, which demand innovation, adaptability, and strategic foresight.

The Governor said that the nation looks towards its armed forces with immense trust and pride, and he is confident that the Indian Army, under General Seth's stewardship, will further enhance its operational preparedness, safeguard the country's territorial integrity, and effectively secure every inch of the nation's borders. He also expressed his hope that peace, stability, and prosperity will continue to prevail across the country, particularly in the strategically important frontier regions like Arunachal Pradesh.

General Dhiraj Seth hails from a distinguished military family with a proud legacy of service to the nation. He is the son of Lieutenant General (Retd.) Krishna Mohan Seth, former Adjutant General of the Indian Army, who retired in 1997 after an illustrious career that included commanding the XXI Strike Corps and the III Corps.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, July 1, 2026