Leaders must be perceptive, analytical and proactive in identifying challenges, assessing situations and finding practical solutions: Governor Youth Leadership Camp participants

Governor underscores self-discipline and selflessness as the finest qualities for success in life

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), participated in the concluding function of the State Level Youth Leadership Camp 'Spread your Wings' for VKV Students, organized by Vivekananda Kendra Vidyalaya Arunachal Pradesh Trust, at VKV, Balijan on 25th October 2026.

The Governor emphasized that effective communication is one of the most important qualities of good leadership. He advised the students to cultivate the habit of reading and writing, as these practices broaden knowledge, enrich vocabulary, sharpen thinking and improve the ability to express ideas with clarity and confidence.

Highlighting the importance of composure and determination, the Governor said that a good leader must remain externally calm and internally intense. A composed demeanour, confident body language and measured responses reflect self-control and inspire trust, particularly during challenging situations. He advised the students to remain calm under pressure while maintaining a strong inner drive, clarity of purpose and unwavering determination to achieve their goals.

The Governor said that problem-solving ability is a defining quality of a leader. Leaders must be perceptive, analytical and proactive in identifying challenges, assessing situations and finding practical solutions. He encouraged the students to learn from experience, anticipate challenges and develop the courage to take timely and responsible decisions.

The Governor advised the students to imbibe essential core values, including integrity, trust, and commitment to a cause, modesty, courage, ownership and conviction. He emphasized that integrity must become a way of life, trust strengthens relationships, and modesty keeps individuals grounded in reality. He stressed that leadership must always be accompanied by commitment to command with responsibility, reminding the students that authority is not merely a position of privilege but an obligation to guide, inspire and serve others.

Emphasizing the importance of passion in achieving one's goals, the Governor encouraged the students to develop their Passion Quotient alongside intelligence, knowledge and skills. He said that passion provides purpose to hard work, sustains perseverance during setbacks and motivates individuals to go beyond their perceived limitations. When passion is supported by discipline, dedication and determination, it becomes a powerful force for personal growth and achievement.

The Governor underscored that self-discipline and selflessness are among the finest qualities for success in life. He urged the students to lead by example, uphold strong moral values and place collective well-being above personal recognition, thereby becoming responsible leaders who contribute meaningfully to the progress of Arunachal Pradesh and the nation.

Secretary, VKVAPT, Sushri Sujatha Nayak, Northeast Sampark Pramukh, Prant Sangathak Arunachal Prant and Joint Secretary, VKVAPT Shri Rupesh Mathur, Principal VKV Itanagar and Bouddhik Pramukh of the Shivar, Shri Krishnan, also spoke on the occasion, while Camp participants Km. Kelong Baki, Kr. Rehanso Kri and Km. Gichik Yachum shared the experience of the Camp.

In his Shibir Report, Education Officer, VKVAPT and Shibir Pramukh of the camp Shri P Ajayakumar, informed that 145 students from VKVs from various parts of the State participated in the 4-day Camp, with 'Love India' as its central theme. He also informed that Camp objectives includes 'Awakening the latent energy of youth, developing skills, leadership quality and building understanding of Vivekananda Kendra as a platform for youth to channelize their dreams and aspiration for the welfare of Arunachal Pradesh and India as a whole.
