Governor presents 'Land of Rising Sun' plaque to VKVAPT

Governor appreciates VKVAPT for its significant contribution to nurturing an excellent academic environment that promotes knowledge, discipline, character-building and holistic development

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), presented 'Land of Rising Sun' plaque for Excellence to Vivekananda Kendra Vidyalaya Arunachal Pradesh Trust (VKVAPT), at VKV, Balijan on 25th October 2026. VKVAPT Secretary Sushri Sujatha Nayak and Joint Secretary Shri Rupesh Mathur received the plaque in presence of VKV alumni, led by its President Dr Minggam Pertin and Dr Akepi Linggi and students.

Commending the Vivekananda Kendra Vidyalaya Arunachal Pradesh Trust (VKVAPT), the Governor appreciated its significant contribution to nurturing an excellent academic environment that promotes knowledge, discipline, character-building and holistic development. He said that the VKV schools have earned a distinguished place among the State's educational institutions through their commitment to academic excellence and value-based education.

Exhorting the Trust to sustain and strengthen its commitment, the Governor said that VKVs have become a source of inspiration and pride for Arunachal Pradesh. He encouraged the Trust to continue nurturing young minds with the ideals of Swami Vivekananda, fostering leadership, self-discipline, patriotism and selfless service.

The Governor expressed confidence that, with its continued dedication to quality education and character formation, VKVAPT would inspire future generations to realize their potential and contribute meaningfully to building a prosperous Arunachal Pradesh and a developed India.

The Governor observed that students educated in VKVs are making valuable contributions to the development and progress of Arunachal Pradesh in diverse fields. He expressed hope that the VKV students would translate their learning into meaningful action and become confident, capable and compassionate individuals.
